“Ion Ionescu de la Brad” University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Iași

“Ion Ionescu de la Brad” University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Iași is an old higher education institution in Romania. With about 5,000 students and 160 academic staff, the university enjoys high prestige at national and international level and co-operates with over 60 universities world-wide. “Ion Ionescu de la Brad” University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Iași is a member of some of the most important university networks and associations (the Agence Universitaire de la Francophonie, European University Association, The International Association for the Exchange of Students for Technical Experience, Réseau International Francophone des Etablissements de Formation de Formateurs).

Through its four faculties (Agriculture, Horticulture, Animal Husbandry, and Veterinary Medicine), “Ion Ionescu de la Brad” University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine of Iași provides one of the fullest ranges of classical education available in Romania: Bachelor's , Master's and doctoral degrees.

As a former capital of the historical Romanian province Moldova, Iasi is nowadays one of the greatest towns of Romania, with about 350 000 inhabitants, with six state-run universities and three private ones, with many young people and a tumultuous life.

Iasi is an affordable city, where prices can be lower than in other Romanian cities, since 400 Euro is enough for a monthly decent living. International students are guaranteed accommodation in a university residence hall on request. Our university campus is situated within a 2-minute walking distance from the main University building. Housing is available in double or triple rooms, fully furnished, including a TV-set, INTERNET cable connection and a private bathroom. On each floor there is a kitchen, fully equipped for cooking, but students can also choose to serve their meals in a canteen-restaurant situated within walking distance from the main University building.

"Ion Ionescu de la Brad" University of Agricultural Sciences and Veterinary Medicine has its own Sports Centre (volleyball, gymnastics, basketball, handball, fitness, sauna) and outdoor sport grounds (handball, basketball, football). There are many opportunities to meet and make new friends, for Iasi prides itself on its active cultural life full of activities and entertainment, including a range of art, music, dance, theatre, literature, film and museums.
