Dear Author,

We are glad to let you know that your manuscript has been accepted for publication in Romanian Biotechnological Letters.

However, you must be aware that the final publication of your paper could take between six and twelve months, as it will be scheduled for one of the next issues of our journal which will be released in 2017.

You will receive later the invoice regarding the registration fees and information about the issue and volume in which your paper will be published.

Meanwhile, please check that your paper is arranged following the attached format model, the references are updated and English is carefully revised.

Best regards,

Carmen Chifiriuc
